

InfraWare Leadership

Nicholas J. Mahurin, CEO

Nick Mahurin brings more than 20 years of entrepreneurial experience, business acumen and technology expertise to his role as the founder and chief executive officer of InfraWare. He has leveraged his vast and broad background to provide InfraWare an innovative Web-based tool that reduces the cost and increases the accuracy of medical transcription, boosts transcriptionist productivity and cuts turnaround time.

Mr. Mahurin has a long track record of launching successful businesses. In 1989 he founded Computer Solutions – currently operating as CS Technology Center – which provides computer and network consulting, engineering, administration and support services. In 1998 he also founded XSNet, an Internet Service Provider (ISP) which provides dial-up, DSL, T1 and wireless services.

Mr. Mahurin earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology in Terre Haute, Ind., and holds numerous information technology certifications.